Why do you want to serve on the San Francisco Bicycle Coalition Board of Directors?

I have been looking for ways to get more involved since joining. As an out trans woman, I don't see a lot of folks like me involved in the things I do and I want to be the example I frequently haven't had for others.

Do you have specific goals you want to accomplish on the SFBC Board of Directors?

I want to activate folks who are not currently riding. Whether that's through showing up to speak on behalf of a bike lane they may one day use or giving staff the support they need to help make positive changes for folks biking here, I want to see more safe infrastructure for folks. We always be to trying to create space for those who are not currently riding.

What skills, experience and relevant qualities would you bring to Board service?

I am trans and currently a board member and volunteer with the SF LGBT Center as well, so I am familiar with fundraising and other expectations of board members. My current focus is on board development and how to thoughtfully produce a board which also reflects the organization. I also have experience organizing folks to speak on behalf of positive changes to try and move the city in the right direction.
